

Journal Peer Reviewer Application

The Journal of Healthcare Information Management (JHIM) is a peer-reviewed journal published quarterly by HIMSS. HIMSS believes that peer review enhances the status of JHIM, further improves the editorial quality and presents the journal as an authoritative source to the media, HIMSS Members, and the public. To become a peer reviewer, you must submit the following information:

1. A current curriculum vitae, including a listing of publications, presentations, and any other editorial experience.
2. A completed Peer Review Application Form.
3. A signed Confidentiality Agreement and Conflict of Interest Statement.
(Please print and sign this agreement)

Peer Review Confidentiality Agreement/
Conflict of Interest Statement

The undersigned recognizes and agrees that manuscripts under review are to be held in strict confidence. If, as a peer reviewer, you feel the need to consult with colleagues, please inform your colleagues that the information contained in the manuscript is confidential. If a conflict of interest arises which compromises your review of any manuscripts without bias, you agree to return them to HIMSS Publications for reassignment. Peer reviewers should not contact authors under any circumstances.

Please direct any questions regarding the manuscript to Matt Schlossberg, Senior Editor, HIMSS at 312-915-9282 or mschlossberg@himss.org.
