

Application for Advancement to Senior Member and Fellow Status

Philosophy

The purpose of the advancement program is to recognize those members who have provided substantial service and contributions to HIMSS, with an emphasis on the member's professional growth and participation. In addition the HIMSS advancement program recognizes members for their contribution of knowledge and experience to the healthcare industry as a whole.

Achieving advancement will signify a member's intent to actively engage in the leadership of HIMSS. Individuals who advance to Senior Member and Fellow Member status are seen as leaders within HIMSS, implying not only recognition for past contributions, but also the expectation of continued participation and contributions. Fellow Members, the highest membership level, are those members who are known and recognized within HIMSS for their continued service and ongoing contribution of their knowledge to the success of the society and to the fields of healthcare, information, technology and change.

In summary, the goals of the membership advancement process include:

1. Solicit appropriate evidence of individual contributions to HIMSS and to the healthcare industry as a whole
2. Reflect appropriate criteria for Senior Member and Fellow Member advancement
3. Aid members' understanding that advancement within HIMSS is synonymous with more organization participation and leadership
4. Function as a tool to support mentoring of members toward advancement and participation within HIMSS

*For purposes of this advancement application, references to "HIMSS" means and includes current and prior contributions to HIMSS and to CHIM, CHIME, CPRI-HOST, MANI, and AFECHT.
